Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who slinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weakness, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of weakness, derangements and other ailments. But the many household cares, and the hard, never-ending work which is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in failing health, and to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapse, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacement of the woman's organs, it is very necessary that they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. All heavy lifting or straining of any kind should also be avoided. A much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. The patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

A WOMAN TO BE PRETTY

Must Have Luxuriant and Glossy Hair, No Matter What Color.

The finest contour of a female face, the sweetest smile of a female mouth, loses something if the head is crowned with scant hair. Scant and falling hair, it is now known, is caused by a parasite that burrows into the scalp to the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality. The little white scales the germ throws up in burrowing are called dandruff. To cure dandruff permanently, then, and to stop falling hair, that germ must be killed. Noddy's Herpicide, an entirely new result of the chemical laboratory, destroys the dandruff germ, and, of course, stops the falling hair, and prevents baldness. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Tartar-Armenian Warfare.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says that the strictest censorship is exercised over press dispatches in the Caucasus to conceal the true state of affairs regarding both the true inwardness of the Tartar-Armenian warfare and the ferment among the Russian troops in the garrisoned towns of Trans-Caucasia.

The Armenian-Tartar situation is worse than is known to the outside world. Almost all the Russian military units are disaffected and even the Cossacks are rebelling against doing police duty. The latest mutiny is that of the Poltava Cossacks, who several days ago at Tiflis formally demanded to be relieved from police duty, and asked for the discharge of those who had served more than three years. The entire regiment was disbanded and confined in its barracks under guard.

Another version of the Dashlagir affair, in which a number of officers were killed, is that the sailors of the Black Sea fleet implicated in the Kuiz-Potemkin mutiny, who were attached to a disciplinary battalion at the village of Kusar, on the Caspian Sea, near Dashlagir, had been in communication with the Samur Regiment, which constituted the garrison of Samur.

After the dissolution of Parliament the soldiers held meetings and marched to the quarters of the commander, Colonel Lemkul, to present their demands. It appears that Father Palmoff, the chaplain, who was greatly beloved by the men, sought to enact the role of peacemaker and was beseeching Colonel Lemkul to make some concessions when the latter shot him down. The soldiers thereupon fired at the colonel, who fell pierced by 52 bullets. The officers fired on the soldiers from the windows of their quarters and the infuriated men rushed into the building and killed six of the officers.

A secret meeting of about 200 soldiers, including representatives of some of the guard regiments, has been held in the woods near their camp at Krasnoye-Selo. It is reported that a large portion of the men were shown to be in thorough sympathy with the cause of the people and would refuse to fire on them when ordered to do so, but it was also determined that the time was not yet ripe for a general mutiny, as the majority of the troops at the capital were still nominally loyal. Without a general rising of the people, which would offer a prospect of success, the leaders declared, it was hopeless to expect any active support from the army. Insignificant mutinies were characterized by the speakers as useless sacrifices, and the agitators who prematurely precipitated the risings at Sveaborg and Cronstadt were severely criticised.

Woman Runs Thieves' Auto.

Road agents in a 40-horsepower automobile, piloted by a chauffeur as handsome as she is daring, have created consternation among the millionaires in their Long Island New York, summer homes. Their latest depredation occurred last night, when the home of O. C. Vernaas, publisher of Atlantic's Magazine, on the Bryant estate, at Roslyn, was entered.

An attempt also was made to burglarize the house of Edward Willets, at Westbury, at which place the touring-car robbers dynamited the postoffice only the night before.

Apart from the fact that the robbers travel in a huge red automobile, which is piloted by a woman who acts as "look-out," and that there are three robbers who wear automobile toggery, affording them a very proper disguise, the authorities have absolutely no clue to their identity.

The burglarly at the Vernaas residence, occurred late Wednesday night. The family was absent. An automobile, with no lights displayed, was seen in the vicinity. The robbers secured about $600 worth of silverware. To get this they blew open a strong box after having forced an entrance to the house through a window.

The noise of the explosion attracted the attention of the help employed on the estate, and an attempt was made to capture the thieves. They fled to the road, however, jumped into the waiting automobile which was concealed in the shrubbery, and whizzed away.

Not far away is the residence of George Titus, a wealthy farmer. The burglars next tried to effect an entrance there, but were frightened away by the barking of the dogs.

The Willets home at Westbury was next visited. Willets was aroused from his sleep. Divining that the famous auto robbers were paying their call, Willets at once opened fire on three fleeing figures. Persons in the neighborhood, alarmed by the shots, hastened to the road. Several of them narrowly escaped being run down by the touring car of the robbers, which sped by them like a flash.

The entire constabulary of Long Island is aroused. Sheriff Gildersleeve, of Nassau county, is considering the advisability of specially deputizing men to patrol the principal roadways of the island after dark, and local constables and town authorities are perfecting plans looking to the establishment of an all-night vigilance committee.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.

Her first letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful periods--the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the female organs. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."

Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.

Her second letter:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."

Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 30th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.

How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her--a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says--it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers suffering women helpful advice.

Capital increased during the five years from $8,978,825,000 to $12,686,575, or 41 per cent. In the same period the total value of products increased from $11,411,121,122 to $14,802,147,087, a gain of 30 per cent. There has been an increase of 43 per cent. in the number of officers and clerks employed by these manufacturing, and a gain of 51 per cent. in the salaries paid. In the same time the number of wage earners increased 16 per cent. and the salaries 30 per cent. The number of wage earners reported for 1905 was 5,470,321, with an annual income of $2,611,540,532.

Day by day people realize the importance of caring for their digestion; realize the need of the use of a little corrective after overeating. A corrective like Kodol For Dyspepsia. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King Street.
